

string duo

mark so

—any 2 bowed-string instruments beginning loosely together, each plays once through the material, independently putting space between notes the two parts are free to overlap each note lasts one full bow notes played where written, each instrument reading directly, clef always free long silences possible

duration of spaces free very plain, very soft

*23-24 march 2009
los angeles*