

Through shine

[for Adam Overton]

mark so

[one or more independently, in a quiet outdoors]

*the place,
Where we had been before, got tangled Within us, forced To break out so that no one knew
The stalks from the knot of pleasure
And it would be determined to happen again*

– John Ashbery, “The Shower”

[slowly unraveling the memory of a place using only the body]

slight, simple movements enacted in light of some past place or recounting some record of a past place

[twice for some duration, a pause between]
